PREFACE

For many a year we have cherished the desire to prepare a hymnal of the kind which is herewith offered to lovers of popular sacred song. The practical obstacles to the realization of our ideal appeared insurmountable until our energetic christian publisher, Mr. William B. Eerdmans, invited us to serve on a committee of five to prepare a collection of hymns which could be recommended unqualifiedly to those who love the orthodox, evangelical faith. Since the committee found it impossible to meet as frequently as was necessary to complete the work within the space of two years, the undersigned undertook the task alone. It has been a gigantic task; but the belief that it has not been in vain is sufficient reward.

In view of the multiplicity of christian hymnals there can hardly be a good excuse for adding to their number unless the purpose is to meet certain needs which existing hymnals do not fully supply. Whatever the merits or faults of this volume may prove to be, both the publisher and the editor feel sure that it has distinctive features which justify its presentation. These distinctive features are as follows:

1—Special attention has been given to theological soundness. Though this is the first requisite of christian hymns and hymnals it has received rather scant attention in our day of widespread doctrinal indifference. It is all the more necessary to give careful attention to this matter in view of the persistent attempts of aggressive liberals to spread their pernicious teachings among unsuspecting christian people by means of modernist hymns and hymnals. Those who love sound doctrine and realize what a vast influence for good or evil religious song may exert upon the thought and life of the members of the church of Christ will appreciate the effort, we believe, to provide a collection of hymns which are fully Scriptural in their teaching and spirit.

The hymns we have selected were all scrutinized closely from the point of view of doctrinal purity. We have tried to cover the entire field of christian truth and experience but have made a special effort to provide hymns which glorify God's grace in Jesus Christ as the sole cause of man's salvation and to exclude those which ascribe some power or virtue to man and so fail to do justice to the sovereign character of that grace. If that exposes us to the charge of sectarianism we answer that we are not ashamed of the "sectarianism" of the Bible!

We did not feel, however, that the logic of our position demanded the rejection of all hymns by non-evangelical authors, a number of which are found even in the most conservative hymnals. Some of these are thoroughly Scriptural as far as they go. And who would insist that every hymn we sing shall express some distinctly evangelical sentiment? That, for example, would condemn many a fine hymn on the attributes of God! A consistent application of this principle would rule out many of the inspired Psalms!

Let it also be remembered that hymns, like all forms of literature, are subject to misinterpretation and in certain cases to a variety of interpretations. We ask those who read our selections with a critical eye to bear this in mind. But if any one feels that the direct teaching or clear doctrinal implication of any of our selections is open to criticism—even when due allowance is made for poetic liberty—he is cordially invited to write the editor. Nothing would please him better than the awakening of a deeper and more general interest among orthodox christians of various denominations in the theology of our hymns.

In not a few instances objectionable stanzas from otherwise good hymns were omitted when this could be done without seriously impairing the unity of such hymns. Revisions and alterations were made where this was deemed advisable and feasible. All changes in the text have been noted underneath the hymn.

2—For various practical reasons we have aimed to produce a hymnal for general use. We cherish the hope that it will meet the needs of various kinds of gatherings and of persons of widely differing degrees of culture. It has been designed to be used not only in Churches but also in Sunday Schools, Missions, Christian Schools and Church Societies. A mere glance at its contents will reveal the fact that it contains a liberal number of the various kinds of hymns: the old and the new; the devotional and the evangelical; the churchly and the personal; hymns of praise, hymns for teaching and hymns of the spiritual life. Of the popular type we have selected only those which we believe to have some merit. It is true that very many of the more recent kind of "evangelical" hymns are mere sentiment without thought and, as regards the music, too sensational to foster genuine christian feeling. But there is wheat among the chaff. We have tried to find at least some of this wheat and in this manner to avoid the mistake of presenting a hymn-book which on account of its lack of appeal to all but the cultured would find a greatly restricted circle of usefulness.

3—Special efforts have been put forth to find attractive tunes for the hymns selected. Our task would have been far simpler if we had been satisfied in all cases with the tunes to which these hymns are usually sung. We have retained them wherever it was possible; at the same time we did not hesitate to make new combinations of hymns and tunes to carry out our purpose of eliminating that type of tune which has dignity but no warmth. We have spared no pains to find such music which reflected and interpreted the sentiment of the hymn to which it would be joined. This was more important, in our opinion, than to be scrupulously afraid of an occasional clash between the accents of the music and of the hymn itself, though this has been avoided, if at all possible. We hope that time and use will justify these new unions and support us in the conviction that many beautiful hymns have been doomed to obscurity by the inferior tunes to which they were set.

Only a few new hymns and tunes are contained in this book. Some of these have not appeared before in any hymnal. Our chief endeavor, however, was to select the best from the vast and rich store of existing hymns.

4—A special section has been set aside for "Songs for Children." It includes not only hymns written for children but also a number of selections which by reason of the simplicity of the truths they convey, the language which they employ and the tunes to which they are set are suitable for singing by children as well as adults.

5—The Choral Section with which this book closes is another distinguishing feature which will appeal especially to those among our christian people, who in their youth have learned to love the stately choral with its depth of chaste religious feeling. In view of the present revival of interest in choral music this feature is especially timely. A few chorals will be found scattered throughout the main body of this book wherever we felt they were needed, but this was done only by way of exception. We invite special attention to those numbers of this section which are the work of the noted sixteenth century composers, Louis Bourgeois, Mattheus Greiter and Maitre Pierre and which we believe to be some of the finest samples obtainable of this type of sacred music. The time of not a few of the choral selections was changed from 2/4 or 4/4 to 2/2 or 4/2 when it seemed to us that the character of the hymn or Psalm called for a slower tempo.

We have endeavored to provide a reasonable number of alternative tunes, believing that difference in musical taste is a factor with which it is proper as well as expedient to reckon.

The placing of the words between the staves is a concession to popular demand. Some day, perhaps, when music will be read with greater ease by the average man and woman than today, the present vogue will pass away,—to the satisfaction of all who insist that the words of a hymn shall not be subordinated to the accompanying tune.

We wish to express our indebtedness and sincere gratefulness to all who have given us encouragement, help and advice.

It is our prayer that the Lord's indispensable blessing may rest upon this book and upon all who may use it in "singing and making melody with their hearts to the Lord."

3 Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

H. F. Lyte, 1834

REGENT SQUARE 8 7 6 lines

Henry Smart, 1867

1. Praise, my soul, the King of heav-en; To His feet thy trib-ute bring;
 2. Praise Him for His grace and fa-vor To our fa-thers in dis-tress;
 3. Fa-ther-like He tends and spares us, Well our fee-ble frame He knows;
 4. An-gels in the height a-dore Him, Who be-hold Him face to face;

Ran-somed, healed, re-stored, for-giv-en, Who like thee His praise should sing?
 Praise Him, still the same as ev-er, Slow to chide, and swift to bless:
 In His hands He gen-tly bears us, Res-cues us from all our foes:
 Sun and moon bow down be-fore Him; Dwell-ers in all time and space:

Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! Praise the ev-er-last-ing King!
 Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! Glo-rious in His faith-ful-ness!
 Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! Wide-ly as His mer-cy flows!
 Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! Praise with us the God of grace!

Come, Thou Fount

NETTLETON 8 7 8 7 D

Rev. Robert Robinson, 1758

John Wyeth, 1812

1. Come, Thou Fount of ev-'ry bless-ing, Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
2. Here I raise mine Eb-en-e-zer; Hith-er by Thy help I'm come;
3. O to grace how great a debt-or Dai-ly I'm con-strained to be!

Streams of mer-cy, nev-er ceas-ing, Call for songs of loud-est praise.
 And I hope, by Thy good pleas-ure, Safe-ly to ar-rive at home.
 Let Thy good-ness, like a fet-ter, Bind my wan-d'ring heart to Thee:

Teach me some me-lo-dious son-net, Sung by flam-ing tongues a-bove;
 Je-sus sought me when a stran-ger, Wand'ring from the fold of God;
 Prone to wan-der, Lord, I feel it, Prone to leave the God I love;

Praise the mount—I'm fixed up-on it—Mount of Thy re-deem-ing love.
 He, to res-cue me from dan-ger, In-ter-posed His pre-cious blood.
 Here's my heart, O take and seal it; Seal it for Thy courts a-bove. A-MEN.

5 Lord, with Glowing Heart

Francis S. Key, 1823

FABEN 8 7 8 7 D

John H. Willcox, 1849

1. Lord, with glow - ing heart I'd praise Thee For the bliss Thy love be - stows,
2. Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee, Wretched wan-d'r'er, far a - stray;
3. Lord, this bos - om's ar - dent feel - ing Vain - ly would my lips ex - press:

For the par-d'ning grace that saves me, And the peace that from it flows:
 Found thee lost, and kind - ly brought thee From the paths of death a - way;
 Low be - fore Thy foot-stool kneel - ing, Deign Thy sup-pliant's prayer to bless:

Help, O God, my weak en - deav - or; This dull soul to rap-ture raise:
 Praise, with love's de - vout - est feel - ing, Him who saw thy guilt-born fear, Let Thy grace, my soul's chief treas-ure, Love's pure flame with-in me raise;

Thou must light the flame, or nev - er Can my love be warmed to praise.
 And, the light of hope re - veal - ing, Bade the blood-stained cross ap-pear.
 And, since words can nev - er meas - ure, Let my life show forth Thy praise.

O Give the Lord Whole-Hearted Praise

VAN DER WERF L M D

U. P. Psalter, 1916

Rev. H. Van Der Werp, 1911

1. O give the Lord whole-heart-ed praise; To Him thanks-giv-ing I will bring;

 In truth and right-eous-ness de-creed They shall for-ev-er more en-dure.

1. O for a thou-sand tongues to sing My great Re-deem-er's praise,
 2. My gra-cious Mas-ter and my God, O help me to pro-claim,
 3. Je-sus! the name that charms our fears, That bids our sor-rows cease;
 4. He breaks the pow'r of can-celed sin, He sets the pris-ner free;
 5. Hear Him, ye deaf; His praise, ye dumb, Your loos-ened tongues em-ploy;

The glo-ries of my God and King, The tri-umphs of His grace.
 To spread thro' all the earth a-broad The hon-ors of Thy name.
 'Tis mu-sic in the sin-ner's ears, 'Tis life, and health, and peace.
 His blood can make the foul-est clean; His blood a-vailed for me.
 Ye blind, be-hold your Sav-ior come; And leap, ye lame, for joy. A-MEN.

The Heavens Declare Thy Glory

PSALM 19

Thomas R. Birks, 1874

FAITHFUL 7 6 7 6 D

John Sebastian Bach, 1685-1750 from "My Heart Ever Faithful"

1. The heav'ns de - clare Thy glo - ry, The fir - ma - ment Thy pow'r;
 2. The sun with roy - al splen - dor Goes forth to chant Thy praise,
 3. All heav'n on high re - joic - es To do its Mak - er's will;

Day un - to day the sto - ry Re - peats from hour to hour;
 And moon - beams soft and ten - der Their gen - tler an - them raise:
 The stars with sol - emn voic - es Re - sound Thy prais - es still:

Night un - to night re - ply - ing, Pro - claims in ev - 'ry land,
 O'er ev - 'ry tribe and na - tion The mu - sic strange is poured;
 So let my whole be - hav - ior, Tho'ts, words, and ac - tions be,

O Lord, with voice un - dy - ing, The won - ders of Thy hand.
 The song of all cre - a - tion To Thee, cre - a - tion's Lord.
 O Lord, my Strength, my Sav - ior, One cease - less song to Thee.

The Heavens in Their Splendor

L M D

Rev. Edward A. Collier, D.D.

S. B. Pond

1. The heav'ns in their splen-dor de-clare The might and the glo-ry of God,
 2. The law that the Lord has or-dained Is per-fect, the soul to re-store;
 3. The fear of the Lord is most clean, For-ev-er un-moved it has stood;
 4. O who can his er-rors dis-cern? From hid-den faults, Lord, keep me free;

For day un-to day speaks His praise, And night tells His wis-dom a-broad.
 His truth makes the sim-ple most wise, The truth that is sure ev-er-more.
 His judg-ments are per-fect-ly true, In all things most righteous and good.
 Let pride nev-er reign in my heart, And clear of great sin I shall be.

They speak not with an-di-ble word, Yet clear is the mes-sage they send;
 His pre-cepts are right-eous and just, Re-joic-ing the heart and the mind;
 Such treas-ure no gold can sup-ply, Such sweet-ness no hon-ey af-ford;
 I pray that my words and my tho'ts May all with Thy pre-cepts ac-cord,

Their wit-ness goes out thro' the earth, Their word to the world's farthest end.
 And all His com-mand-ments are pure, En-light-ning the eyes of the blind.
 Their warn-ings none heed and o-bey But find most a-bun-dant re-ward.
 And ev-er be pleas-ing to Thee, My Rock, my Re-deem-er, my Lord.

The Spacious Firmament On High

CREATION L M D

Joseph Addison, 1712

Arr. from Francis J. Haydn, 1798

1. The spa-cious fir-ma-ment on high, With all the blue e - the - real sky,
2. Soon as the evening shades pre-vail, The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
3. What tho' in sol-emn si - lence all Move round the dark ter-res - trial ball?

And spangled heav'ns, a shining frame, Their great O - rig - i - nal pro-claim.
 And night-ly, to the lis-t'ning earth, Re - peats the sto - ry of her birth;
 What tho' no re - al voice nor sound A - mid the ra-diant orbs be found?

Th' un-wea-ried sun, from day to day, Does his Cre-a - tor's pow'r dis-play,
 While all the stars that round her burn, And all the plan - ets in their turn,
 In rea-son's ear they all re-joice, And ut - ter forth a glo - rious voice;

And pub - lish-es to ev - 'ry land The work of an al-might-y hand.
 Con-firm the ti - dings as they roll, And spread the truth from pole to pole.
 For - ev - er singing as they shine, "The hand that made us is di-vine." A-MEN.

Every Morning Mercies New

Rev. Greville Phillimore, 1863 DIX 7s 6 lines Arr. from Conrad Kocher, 1838

1. Ev - 'ry morn-ing mer-cies new Fall as fresh as morn-ing dew;
2. Still the great-ness of Thy love Dai-ly doth our sins re-move;
3. Let our prayers each morn pre-vail, That these gifts may nev-er fail;
4. As the morn-ing light re- turns, As the sun with splen-dor burns,

Ev - 'ry morn-ing let us pay Trib-ute with the ear-ly day:
Dai-ly, far as east from west, Lifts the bur-den from the breast;
And, as we con-fess the sin And the tempt-er's pow'r with-in,
Teach us still to turn to Thee, Ev-er bless-ed Trin-i-ty,

For Thy mer-cies, Lord, are sure; Thy com-pas-sion doth en-dure.
Gives un-bought to those who pray Strength to stand in e-vil day.
Ev - 'ry morn-ing, for the strife, Feed us with the Bread of Life.
With our hands our hearts to raise, In un-fail-ing prayer and praise.

O Sav-ior, till my life shall end, Be Thou my Coun-sel-or and Friend;
With pard'ning mer-cy rich-ly blest, Guard me, my Sav-ior, while I rest;
Je-sus, Thy heav'n-ly ra-diance shed, To cheer and bless my dy-ing bed:

Chase the dark shades of night a-way, And turn my darkness in - to day.
Teach me Thy pre-cepts all di-vine, And be Thy great ex-am-ple mine.
And as each morning's sun shall rise, Oh, lead me on - ward to the skies.
Then from death's gloom my spirit raise, To see Thy face and sing Thy praise. A-MEN.

77 I When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1707

HAMBURG L M

Arr. from a Gregorian Chant
by Lowell Mason, 1824

1. When I sur-vey the won-drous cross On which the Prince of glo-ry died,
2. See, from His head, His hands, His feet, Sor-row and love flow min-gled down:
3. Were the whole realm of na-ture mine, That were a pres-ent far too small;

My rich-est gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.
Did e'er such love and sor-row meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
Love so a-maz-ing, so di-vine, Demands my soul, my life, my all.

RICHARDS 8 7 8 7 D

Arr. from Emmelar

1. Sweet the mo-ments, rich in bless-ing, Which be-fore the cross we spend;
2. Love and grief our hearts di-vid-ing, With our tears His feet we bathe;
3. Here we feel our sins for-giv-en, While up-on the Lamb we gaze,

Life, and health, and peace pos-sess-ing, From the sin-ner's dy-ing Friend.
 Con-stant still, in faith a-bid-ing, Life de-riv-ing from His death.
 And our thoughts are all of heav-en, And our lips o'er-flow with praise.

Tru-ly bless-ed is this sta-tion, Low be-fore His cross to lie,
 For Thy sor-rows we a-dore Thee, For the pains that wrought our peace,
 Still in cease-less con-tem-pla-tion, Fix our heart and eyes on Thee,

While we see di-vine com-pas-sion Beam-ing in His gra-cious eye.
 Gra-cious Sav-ior! we im-plore Thee In our souls Thy love in-crease.
 Till we taste Thy full sal-va-tion, And, un-veiled, Thy glo-ries see.

Make Me a Captive, Lord

LEOMINSTER S M D

George Matheson, 1842-1906

G. W. Martin, 1862

1. Make me a cap - tive, Lord, And then I shall be free;
 2. My heart is weak and poor Un - til it mas - ter find:
 3. My pow'r is faint and low Till I have learned to serve,
 4. My will is not my own Till Thou hast made it Thine;

Force me to ren - der up my sword, And I shall con-qu'ror be.
 It has no spring of ac - tion sure— It va - ries with the wind:
 It wants the need - ed fire to glow, It wants the breeze to nerve;
 If it would reach a mon-arch's throne It must its crown re - sign:

I sink in life's a - larms When by my - self I stand;
 It can - not free - ly move Till Thou hast wrought its chain;
 It can - not drive the world Un - til it - self be driv'n;
 It on - ly stands un - bent A - mid the clash - ing strife,

Im - pris'n me in Thy might - y arms, And strong shall be my hand.

SUCH A FRIEND 8 7 8 7 D

Geo. C. Stebbins, 1878

1. I've found a Friend, oh, such a Friend! He loved me ere I knew Him;
2. I've found a Friend, oh, such a Friend! He bled, He died to save me;
3. I've found a Friend, oh, such a Friend! All pow'r to Him is giv-en,
4. I've found a Friend, oh, such a Friend! So kind, and true, and ten-der,

He drew me with the cords of love, And thus He bound me to Him.
And not a - lone the gift of life, But His own self He gave me.
To guard me on my on-ward course, And bring me safe to heav-en.
So wise a Coun-sel-lor and Guide, So might-y a De-fend-er!

And round my heart still close-ly twine Those ties which naught can sev-er,
Naught that I have my own I call, I hold it for the Giv-er:
Th'e-ter-nal glo-ries gleam a-far, To nerve my faint en-deav-or:
From Him who loves me now so well, What pow'r my soul can sev-er?

For I am His, and He is mine, For-ev-er and for-ev-er.
My heart, my strength, my life, my all, Are His, and His for-ev-er.
So now to watch, to work, to war, And then to rest for-ev-er.
Shall life or death, or earth or hell? No; I am His for-ev-er.

137 Rock of Ages

Rev. A. M. Toplady, 1776 TOPLADY 7 7 7 7 7

Thomas Hastings, 1830

1. Rock of A - ges, cleft for me, Let me hide my-self in Thee;
 2. Not the la - bors of my hands Can ful - fill Thy law's de - mands;
 3. Noth - ing in my hand I bring, Sim - ply to Thy cross I cling;
 4. While I draw this fleet - ing breath, When my eye - lids close in death,

Let the wa - ter and the blood, From Thy wound - ed side which flowed,
 Could my zeal no res - pite know, Could my tears for - ev - er flow,
 Na - ked, come to Thee for dress; Help - less, look to Thee for grace;
 When I soar to worlds un-known, See Thee on Thy judg - ment throne,

Rock of Ages

Be of sin the dou - ble cure, Cleanse me from its guilt and pow'r.
 All for sin could not a - tone, Thou must save, and Thou a - lone.
 Foul, I to the foun - tain fly; Wash me, Sav - ior, or I die.
 Rock of A - ges, cleft for me, Let me hide my - self in Thee.

1. I gave My life for thee, My pre - cious blood I shed,
 2. My Fa - ther's house of light, My glo - ry - cir - cled throne
 3. I suf - fered much for thee, More than thy tongue can tell,
 4. And I have brought to thee, Down from My home a - bove,

That thou might'st ran - somed be, And quick - ened from the dead;
 I left, for earth - ly night, For wan - d'ings sad and lone;
 Of bit - t'rest ag - o - ny, To res - cue thee from hell;
 Sal - va - tion full and free, My par - don and My love;

 I gave, I gave My life for thee, What hast thou giv'n for Me?
 I've borne, I've borne it all for thee, What hast thou borne for Me?
 I bring, I bring rich gifts to thee, What hast thou brought to Me?

Hail, Thou Once Despised

AUTUMN 8 7 8 7 D

Rev. John Bakewell, 1757. Alt.

Arr. from Genevan Psalter, 1551

1. Hail, Thou once de-spis-ed Je-sus! Hail, Thou Gal-i-le-an King!
2. Pas-chal Lamb, by God ap-point-ed, All our sins on Thee were laid:
3. Je-sus, hail! enthroned in glo-ry, There for-ev-er to a-bide;
4. Wor-ship, hon-or, pow'r, and blessing, Thou art wor-thy to re-ceive;

Thou didst suf-fer to re-lease us; Thou didst free sal-va-tion bring.
By al-might-y love a-noint-ed, Thou hast full a-tone-ment made.
All the heav'n-ly hosts a-dore Thee, Seat-ed at Thy Fa-ther's side:
Loud-est prais-es, with-out ceas-ing, Meet it is for us to give.

Hail, Thou ag-o-niz-ing Sav-ior, Bear-er of our sin and shame!
All Thy peo-ple are for-giv-en, Thro' the vir-tue of Thy blood;
There for sin-ners Thou art plead-ing; There Thou dost our place pre-pare:
Help, ye bright an-gel-ic spir-its; Bring your sweet-est, no-blest lays;

By Thy mer-its we find fa-vor; Life is giv-en thro' Thy name.
O-pened is the gate of Heav-en; Peace is made 'twixt man and God.
Ev-er for us in-ter-ced-ing, Till in glo-ry we ap-pear.
Help to sing our Sav-ior's mer-its; Help to chant Immanuel's praise! A-MEN.

Lowell Mason, 1830

1. There is a foun-tain filled with blood Drawn from Im-man- uel's veins;
2. The dy - ing thief re-joiced to see That foun-tain in his day;
3. Dear dy - ing Lamb, Thy pre-cious blood Shall nev - er lose its pow'r,
4. E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream Thy flow-ing wounds sup-ply,
5. Then in a no-bler, sweet-er song, I'll sing Thy pow'r to save,

And sin-ners, plunged be-neath that flood, Lose all their guilt - y stains:
 And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins a - way:
 Till all the ran-somed church of God Be saved, to sin no more:

My Hope is Built

SOLID ROCK 8 8 8 8, with Refrain

Rev. Edward Mote, 1834. Arr.

William B. Bradbury

1. My hope is built on noth-ing less Than Je-sus' blood and righteousness;
2. When dark-ness veils His love-ly face, I rest on His un-chang-ing grace;
3. His oath, His cov-e-nant, His blood, Sup-port me in the whelm-ing flood;
4. When He shall come with trumpet sound, Oh, may I then in Him be found;

I dare not trust the sweet-est frame, But whol-ly lean on Je-sus' name.
In ev-'ry high and storm-y gale, My an-chor holds with-in the veil.
When all a-round my soul gives way, He then is all my hope and stay.
Dressed in His right-eous-ness a-lone, Fault-less to stand be-fore the throne.

143 O Lamb of God, That Takest Away

AGNUS DEI

From the Latin (A. D. 492?)

Translated by G. Moultrie, 1864

Slow and with much feeling

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) using a grand staff with two staves per part. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is primarily in the Soprano and Alto parts, with the Tenor and Bass parts providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written below the staves, with some words appearing in both the Soprano and Alto parts. The score is divided into five systems, each with two staves. The lyrics are: "O Lamb of God, That tak - est a - way the sin of the world; Save us, mer - ci - ful Lord God! O Lamb of God, That tak - est a - way the sin of the world; Hear us, mer - ci - ful Lord God! O Lamb of God, That tak - est a - way the sin of the world, Give us Thy peace and bless - ing. . . ."

214 With Broken Heart And Contrite Sigh

Rev. Cornelius Elven, 1852

ZEPHYR L M

William B. Bradbury, 1843

1. With bro-ken heart and con-trite sigh, A trem-bling sin-ner, Lord, I cry;
2. I smite up-on my troub-led breast, With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
3. Far off I stand with tear-ful eyes Nor dare up-lift them to the skies;
4. Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done Can for a sin-gle sin a-tone;
5. And when, redeemed from sin and hell, With all the ran-somed throng I dwell, Thy par-d'ning grace is rich and free: O God, be mer-ci-ful to me!

 Christ and His cross my on-ly plea; O God, be mer-ci-ful to me!
 But Thou dost all my an-guish see; O God, be mer-ci-ful to me!
 To Cal-va-ry a-lone I flee; O God, be mer-ci-ful to me!
 My rap-tured song shall ev-er be, God has been mer-ci-ful to me!

 3. Je-sus my Shep-herd is; 'Twas He that loved my soul,
 4. I was a wan-d'ring sheep, I would not be con-trolled,

I did not love my Shep-herd's voice, I would not be con-trolled;
 He fol-lowed me o'er vale and hill, O'er des-erts waste and wild;
 'Twas He that washed me in His blood, 'Twas He that made me whole:
 But now I love my Shep-herd's voice, I love, I love the fold:

I was a way-ward child, I did not love my home,
 He found me nigh to death, Fam-ished, and faint, and lone,
 'Twas He that sought the lost, That found the wan-d'ring sheep,
 I was a way-ward child, I once pre-ferred to roam;

I did not love my Fa-ther's voice, I loved a - far to roam.
 He bound me with the bands of love, He saved the wan-d'ring one.
 'Twas He that brought me to the fold, 'Tis He that still doth keep.
 But now I love my Fa-ther's voice, I love, I love His home!

Hugh Stowell, 1827

RETREAT L M

Thomas Hastings, 1842

1. From ev - 'ry storm-y wind that blows, From ev - 'ry swell-ing tide of woes,
 2. There is a place where Je-sus sheds The oil of glad-ness on our heads,
 3. There is a spot where spir - its blend, Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
 4. There, there, on ea-gle's wing we soar, And time and sense seems all no more,

There is a calm, a sure re-treat; 'Tis found be-neath the mer - cy - seat.
 A place than all be-sides more sweet; It is the blood-bought mer-cy-seat.
 Tho' sun-dered far, by faith they meet A - round one com-mon mer - cy - seat.
 And heav'n comes down, our souls to greet, And glo - ry crowns the mer - cy - seat.

Anon.

Oskar Ahnfelt, 1813-1882

1. I look not back; God knows the fruit - less ef - forts,
 2. I look not for - ward; God sees all the fu - ture,
 3. I look not round me; then would fears as - sail me,
 4. I look not in - ward; that would make me wretch - ed;

 The road that, short or long, will lead me home,
 So wild the tu - mult of earth's rest - less seas,
 For I have naught on which to stay my trust.
 For there my heart can rest, my fears are stilled;

I leave them all with Him who blots the rec - ord,
 And He will face with me its ev - 'ry tri - al,
 So dark the world, so filled with woe and e - vil,
 Noth - ing I see save fail - ures and short - com - ings,
 And there is joy, and love, and light for dark - ness,

And gra - cious - ly for - gives, and then for - gets.
 And bear for me the bur - dens that may come.
 So vain the hope of com - fort and of ease.
 And weak en - deav - ors, crum - bling in - to dust.
 And per - fect peace, and ev - 'ry hope ful - filled.

239 O For a Faith That Will Not Shrink

Rev. W. H. Bathurst, 1831

ST. AGNES C M

J. B. Dykes, 1866

1. O for a faith that will not shrink, Tho' pressed by many a foe,
2. That will not mur-mur nor com-plain Be - neath the chas-t'ning rod,
3. A faith that shines more bright and clear When tempests rage with-out;
4. That bears un-moved the world's dread frown, Nor heeds its scorn - ful smile;
5. A faith that keeps the nar - row way Till life's last hour is fled,
6. Lord, give us such a faith as this, And then, what-e'er may come,

That will not trem - ble on the brink Of an - y earth - ly woe;
But, in the hour of grief or pain, Will lean up - on its God;
That when in dan - ger knows no fear, In dark-ness feels no doubt;
That seas of troub - le can - not drown, Nor Sa-tan's arts be - guile;
And with a pure and heav'n - ly ray Lights up a dy - ing bed!
We'll taste e'en here, the hal - lowed bliss Of an e - ter - nal home.

How Tedious and Tasteless

Rev. John Newton, 1779

L. M. D

Lewis Edson

1. How te-dious and taste-less the hours When Je-sus no lon-ger I see!
2. His name yields the rich-est per-fume, And sweet-er than mu-sic His voice;
3. Con-tent with re-ceiv-ing His grace, My all to His pleas-ure re-signed,
4. Dear Lord, if in-deed I am Thine, If Thou art my sun and my song, Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flow'rs, Have all lost their sweetness for me.

His pres-ence dis-pers-es my gloom, And makes all with-in me re-joice:
No chang-es of sea-son or place Would make an-y change in my mind:
Say, why do I lan-guish and pine, And why are my win-ters so long?

The mid-sum-mer sun shines but dim; The fields strive in vain to look gay;
I should, were He al-ways thus nigh, Have noth-ing to wish or to fear;
While blest with a sense of His love, A pal-ace a toy would ap-pear;
Oh, drive these dark clouds from my sky; Thy soul-cheer-ing pres-ence re-store;

But when I am hap-py in Him, De-cem-ber's as pleas-ant as May.
No mor-tal so hap-py as I; My sum-mer would last all the year.
And prisons would pal-a-ces prove, If Je-sus would dwell with me there.
Or take me to Thee up on high, Where winter and clouds are no more. A-MEN.

Is Thy Cruse of Comfort Failing

CARITAS 8 7 8 7 D

Elizabeth Charles, 1859

Anon.

1. Is thy cruse of com-fort fail-ing? Rise and share it with an-oth-er,
2. For the heart grows rich in giv-ing; All its wealth is liv-ing grain;
3. Numb and wea-ry on the moun-tains, Wouldst thou sleep a-midst the snow?
4. Is the heart a well left emp-ty? None but God its void can fill;

And thro' all the years of fam-ine It shall serve thee and thy broth-er;
Seeds which mil-dew in the gar-ner, Scat-tered, fill with gold the plain.
Chafe that fro-zen form be-side thee, And to-geth-er both shall glow.
Noth-ing but a cease-less Foun-tain Can its cease-less long-ings still.

Love di-vine will fill thy store-house, Or thy hand-ful still re-new;
Is thy bur-den hard and heav-y? Do thy steps drag wea-ri-ly?
Art thou strick-en in life's bat-tle? Man-y wound-ed round thee moan;
Is the heart a liv-ing pow-er? Self-en-twined, its strength sinks low;

Scant-y fare for one will oft-en Make a roy-al feast for two.
Help to bear thy broth-er's bur-den, God will bear both it and thee.
Lav-ish on their wounds thy bal-sams, And that balm shall heal thine own.
It can on-ly live in lov-ing, And by serv-ing love will grow.

277 Fill Thou My Life, O Lord, My God

Horatius Bonar, 1866

ELLACOMBE C M D

Wirttemberg, 1784

1. Fill Thou, my life, O Lord, my God, In ev - 'ry part with praise,
2. Praise in the com-mon words I speak, Life's com-mon looks and tones,
3. So shall each fear, each fret, each care, Be turn-ed in - to song,

And ev - 'ry wind-ing of the way The ech - o shall pro-long;

SOME TIME WE'LL UNDERSTAND 8 8 8 8, with Chorus

Maxwell N. Cornelius

James McGranahan

1. Not now, but in the com-ing years, It may be in the bet-ter land,
2. We'll know why clouds instead of sun Were o - ver many a cherished plan;
3. Why what we long for most of all, E - ludes so oft our ea-ger hand;
4. God knows the way, He holds the key, He guides us with un - err - ing hand;

We'll read the meaning of our tears, And there, some time, we'll understand.
Why song has ceased when scarce begun; 'Tis there, some time, we'll understand.
Why hopes are crushed and castles fall, Up there, some time, we'll understand.
Some time with tearless eyes we'll see; Yes, there, up there, we'll understand.

CHORUS. A little faster

Then trust in God thro' all the days; Fear not, for He doth hold thy hand;
doth hold thy hand;

A tempo cres. ad lib.

Though dark thy way, still sing and praise, Some time, some time, we'll understand.

I Sing to Thee

JEG SER DIG, SODE LAM C M D

P. Gerhardt, 1653

1. I sing to Thee with voice and heart, Of all my joys the well;
2. Cheer up, faint heart, re-joice and sing, All anx-ious fear re-sign;
3. In rest-less thoughts or dark de-spair Why spend the day and night?
4. His wis-dom nev-er plans in vain, Ne'er fal-ters, or mis-takes;

I sing, that, what I know Thou art My lips to all may tell:
For God, the sov'-reign Lord and King, Is Thy God, e-ven thine:
On Him who loves thee cast thy care; He makes our bur-dens light:
All that His coun-sels wise or-dain A hap-py end-ing makes:

That Thou a foun-tain art of grace, With bless-ings rich-ly stored
He is thy por-tion, He thy joy, Thy life, and light, and Lord;
Did not His love, and truth, and pow'r Watch o'er thy child-hood's day?
Up-on thy mouth, then, lay thy hand, And trust His guid-ing eye;

For all, in ev-'ry time and place, This well I know, O Lord.
Thy coun-sel-lor when doubts an-noy, Thy shield and great re-ward.
Hath He not oft, in threat'ning hour, Turned dread-ed ills a-way?
Thus, firm as rock, thy feet shall stand, Now and e-ter-nal-ly.

Day by day His sweet voice soundeth, Say-ing, "Chris-tian, fol-low Me."
Turned from home and toil and kin-dred, Leav-ing all for His dear sake.
Still He calls, in cares and pleas-ures, "Chris-tian, love Me more than these."
Give our hearts to Thy o-be-dience, Serve and love Thee best of all.

MORWELLHAM 8 6 8 6 8 6

Anna L. Waring, 1850

Dr. C. Steggall, 1826-1905

1. Fa-ther, I know that all my life Is por-tioned out for me;
2. I ask Thee for a thought-ful love, Thro' constant watching wise,
3. I would not have the rest-less will That hur-ries to and fro,
4. I ask Thee for the dai-ly strength. To none that ask de-nied,
5. In serv-ice which Thy will ap-points There are no bonds for me;

The chang-es that are sure to come, I do not fear to see:
To meet the glad with joy-ful smiles, To wipe the weep-ing eyes;
Seek-ing for some great thing to do, Or se-cret thing to know;
A mind to blend with out-ward life, While keep-ing at Thy side,
My se-cret heart is taught the truth That makes Thy chil-dren free;

I ask Thee for a pres-ent mind, In-tent on pleas-ing Thee.
A heart at leis-ure from it-self To soothe and sym-pa-thize.
I would be treat-ed as a child, And guid-ed where I go.
Con-tent to fill a lit-tle space, If Thou be glo-ri-fied.
A life of self-re-nounc-ing love Is one of lib-er-ty.

Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken

Rev. Henry F. Lyte, 1825

CRUCIFER 8 7 8 7 D

From Mozart
Arr. by H. P. Main, 1873

1. Je - sus, I my cross have ta - ken, All to leave, and fol - low Thee;
2. Let the world de-spise and leave me, They have left my Sav - ior, too;
3. Man may troub - le and dis - tress me, 'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
4. Haste thee on from grace to glo - ry, Armed by faith, and winged by prayer;

Des - ti - tute, de-spised, for - sa - ken, Thou, from hence, my all shalt be:
Hu - man hearts and looks de - ceive me; Thou art not, like man, un - true;
Life with tri - als hard may press me, Heav'n will bring me sweet - er rest.
Heav'n's e - ter - nal day's be - fore thee, God's own hand shall guide thee there.

Per - ish ev - 'ry fond am - bi - tion, All I've sought, and hoped, and known;
And, while Thou shalt smile up - on me, God of wis - dom, love, and might,
O 'tis not in grief to harm me, While Thy love is left to me;
Soon shall close thy earth - ly mis - sion, Swift shall pass thy pil - grim days,

Yet how rich is my con - di - tion, God and Heav'n are still my own!
Foes may hate, and friends may shun me; Show Thy face, and all is bright.
O 'twere not in joy to charm me, Were that joy unmixed with Thee.
Hope shall change to glad fru - i - tion, Faith to sight, and prayer to praise. A-MEN.

4. Up - on the crys - tal pave - ment, down At Je - sus' bless - ed feet,
5. O pre - cious cross! O glo - rious crown! O res - ur - rec - tion day!

No, there's a cross for ev - 'ry one, And there's a cross for me.
But now they taste un - min - gled love, And joy with - out a tear.
And then go home my crown to wear, For there's a crown for me.
With joy I'll cast my gold - en crown, And His dear Name re - peat.
Ye an - gels, from the stars come down, And bear my soul a - way.

NO NIGHT THERE 7 6 7 6, with Chorus

John R. Clements

H. P. Danks

1. In the land of fade-less day Lies the "cit - y four-square,"
2. All the gates of pearl are made, In the "cit - y four-square,"
3. And the gates shall nev - er close To the "cit - y four-square,"
4. There they need no sun-shine bright, In that "cit - y four-square,"

It shall nev - er pass a - way, And there is "no night there."
All the streets with gold are laid, And there is "no night there."
There life's crys - tal riv - er flows, And there is "no night there."
For the Lamb is all the light, And there is "no night there."

CHORUS

God shall "wipe a-way all tears;" There's no death, no pain, nor fears;
God shall "wipe a - way all tears;" There's no death, no pain, nor fears;

And they count not time by years, For there is "no night there."
And they count not time by years, by years, For there is "no night.... there."

 There, for-ev-er pu-ri-fied, In Thy pres-ence to a-bide:

Come to God's own tem-ple, come, Raise the song of har-vest-home.

1. God moves in a mys - te - rious way His won - ders to per - form;
 2. Ye fear - ful saints, fresh cour - age take; The clouds ye so much dread
 3. Judge not the Lord by fee - ble sense, But trust Him for His grace;

As the Hart When Noon Is Burning

PSALM 42

8 7 8 7 7 7 8 8

Rev. Edward A. Collier

L. Bourgeois, 1551

1. As the hart when noon is burn-ing Pants for springs whence wa-ters burst,
2. If fond mem-'ry seek to bor-row Com-fort from the for-mer years.
3. Why art thou cast down and fear-ful? O my soul, why so dis-mayed?
4. As Thy wa-ter-falls re-sound-ing, Deep is call-ing un-to deep:
5. Why dis-qui-et-ed with-in me! Why art thou, my soul, cast down!

So for God my soul is yearn-ing, For the liv-ing God a-thirst:
These but stir a-new my sor-row, O-pen ev-'ry fount of tears:
Hope in God, and eyes now tear-ful Yet shall see His pres-ent aid.
O-ver me, Thine all-sur-round-ing Waves and bil-lows wild-ly sweep:
Hope in God, I yet shall praise Him, Who with joy my life will crown.

When shall I, a wan-d'r'er here, In Thy pres-ence, Lord, ap-pear?
Un-to Zi-on's gates with song, Oh, how oft I led the throng,
Down, O God, my heart is cast, Till I think of mer-cies past;
Yet the Lord will bless my days, I, His lov-ing-kind-ness praise;
He, my God, whose won-drous grace Is the help that cheers my face, Dai-ly by my foes de-rid-ed, Tears they for my food pro-vid-ed.

Who with joy and praise a-dore Thee, Keep-ing ho-li-day be-fore Thee.
Then to Thee, my spir-it wea-ry Turns as from a des-ert drear-y.
And His song, at mid-night giv-en, Be my prayer to God in heav-en.
Com-forts me, when tears are blind-ing, As the hart cool wa-ters find-ing.

BIRTH OF CHRIST

Not too slow

1. From heav'n a-bove to earth I come To bear good news to ev-'ry home;
2. To you this night is born a child Of Ma-ry, cho-sen moth-er mild;
3. 'Tis Christ, our God, who far on high Hath heard your sad and bit-ter cry;
4. Now let us all with glad-some cheer Fol-low the shep-herds, and draw near
5. Wel-come to earth, Thou no-ble Guest, Thro' whom the sin-ful world is blest!

Glad ti-dings of great joy I bring, Where-of I now will say and sing.
 This lit-tle child, of low-ly birth, Shall be the joy of all the earth.
 Him-self will your sal-va-tion be, Him-self from sin will make you free.
 To see this won-drous gift of God, Who hath His on-ly Son be-stowed.
 Thou com'st to bear our mis-er-y, What can we ren-der, Lord, to Thee!

O Love! How Deep

Tr. by John M. Neale, 1851

EISENACH L M

Johann Hermann Schein

1. O love! how deep, how broad, how high; It fills the heart with ec-sta-sy,
2. He sent no an-gel to our race, Of high-er or of low-er place,
3. For us He prayed, for us He taught, For us His dai-ly works He wrought,
4. For us He rose from death a-gain, For us He went on high to reign,

That God, the Son of God, should take Our mor-tal form for mor-tal's sake.
 But wore the robe of hu-man frame Him-self, and to this lost world came.
 He bore the shame-ful cross and death; For us at length gave up His breath.
 For us He sent His Spir-it here To guide, to strengthen and to cheer.

Johannes Olearius, 1671

1. Com-fort, com-fort ye My peo-ple, Speak ye peace, thus saith our God;
2. For the her-ald's voice is cry-ing In the des-ert far and near,
3. Make ye straight what long was crook-ed, Make the rough-er plac-es plain:

Com-fort those who sit in dark-ness, Mourn-ing 'neath their sor-row's load;
 Bid-ding all men to re-pent-ance, Since the king-dom now is here.
 Let your hearts be true and hum-ble, As be-fits His ho-ly reign,

Speak ye to Je-ru-sa-lem Of the peace that waits for them;
 O that warn-ing cry o-bey! Now pre-pare for God a way!
 For the glo-ry of the Lord Now o'er earth is shed a-broad,

Tell her that her sins I cov-er, And her war-fare now is o-ver.
 Let the val-leys rise to meet Him, And the hills bow down to greet Him.
 And all flesh shall see the to-ken, That His Word is nev-er bro-ken.

Lord, to Thee My Soul Is Lifted

PSALM 25

8 7 8 7 7 8 7 8

Rev. Edward A. Collier

L. Bourgeois, 1551

1. Lord, to Thee my soul is lift-ed; O my God, I trust in Thee;
2. Lord, Thy ways of love re-veal-ing, All Thy paths make known to me;
3. All my sins of youth for-get-ting, Do not Thou their guilt re-cord;
4. All Thy paths are truth and kind-ness For Thy saints who for Thee wait.
5. With His saints a-bides His friend-ship, They His faith-ful cov-'nant share.

Let me not in shame be hum-bled, Nor my foes ex-ult o'er me.
In Thy truth guide Thou my foot-steps And there-in my Teach-er be.
But re-mem-ber me in mer-cy For Thy good-ness' sake, O Lord.
For Thy Name's sake grant me par-don, For my sin is ver-y great.
Un-to Him mine eyes are look-ing For de-liv-'rance from the snare.

Un-to them no shame is known Who are wait-ing for Thy bless-ing;
All day long for Thee I wait; God my Sav-ior, I a-dore Thee;
Thou art up-right, good and kind, Sin-ners in Thy way in-struct-ing,
Un-to Him that fear-eth Thee Thou wilt teach the way of bless-ing;
Turn to me, O Lord, re-turn With Thy mer-cy's ben-e-dic-tion;

They are shamed and they a-lone, With-out cause Thy law trans-gress-ing.
For-mer mer-cies, free and great, Be re-mem-bered, I im-plore Thee.
And all those of low-ly mind In Thy right-eous paths con-duct-ing.
Hap-py days his eyes shall see, And his sons the land pos-sess-ing.
Des-o-late, for Thee I yearn, Sore cast down by my af-flic-tion.

PSALM 68

WESTMINSTER COLLEGE 8 8 7, 12 lines

Rev. Edward A. Collier

Matthews Greitner, 1539

1. O God, a-rise! and by Thy might Let all Thy foes be put to flight, With those that evil cher-ish;
2. A fa-ther of the fa-ther-less, A judge of wid-ows in dis-tress Is God, where He a-bid-eth.
3. God's chariots, on His people's side, Are myriads, myriads multiplied, With Him among them dwelling,
4. Blest be the Lord, for us He cares And day by day our burden bears, The God of our sal-va-tion.

Drive them as smoke before Thine ire; As wax is mol-ten by the fire, Let all that hate Thee perish.
To those in sol-i-tude who live, He doth a happy household give, In homes that He pro-vid-eth.
As once He dwelt with veil-ed face In Si-nai as His ho-ly place, In glo-ry all ex-cel-ling.
God is to us a God of love, Who sends deliv'r-ance from above From death and des-o-la-tion.

But let Thy saints with glad acclaim Sing praises to Thy holy Name, And cry with ex-ul-ta - tion.
The captives He from pris'n doth bring, And prosper them, that they may sing Of Him and His sal-va - tion.
Thou hast as-cend-ed glo-riously, And captive led cap-tiv-i - ty; Thine arm hath brought salvation.
But those who will in sin de-light, He will with swift destruction smite, And make His saints victorious;

Cast up a highway smooth and wide, For Him who doth thro' deserts ride! The God of our sal - va - tion.
But they, who wick-ed-ly re - bel, He caus-eth in His wrath to dwell In lands of des-o - la - tion.
They come with gifts who did rebel, That God the Lord with them may dwell And be their con-so-la-tion.
Yea, them I'll bring-He saith to me-From lands remote, from depths of sea, And make thy triumph glorious.

Give Thanks Unto the Lord

PSALM 118

EXULTATION 9 8 9 8 D

Anonymous

L. Bourgeois, 1551—Steenhuis, 1899

1. Give thanks un-to the Lord, Je - ho - vah, For He is good, O praise His Name!
2. In a large place the Lord hath set me, In my dis-tress He heard my cry;
3. I shall not die, but live, de - clar - ing The works of God, who tried me sore,

The Lord is chief a - mong my help-ers;	And I shall see my foes o'er-thrown:

Thou art my God, I will ex - alt Thee;	I will give thanks to Thy great Name;

Let all that fear the Lord ex - tol Him,	His mer - cy ev - er is the same.
Far bet - ter than in man or princ - es,	My trust I place in God a - lone.
To praise Thee, Lord, who prayer hast answered,	And sav-edst me from all my sin.

SELECTION 1

The Glory of Jehovah

Psalms 8, 115:1-11

O Jehovah, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth, who hast set thy glory upon the heavens!

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength, because of thine adversaries, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him? And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him but little lower than God, and crownest him with glory and honor.

Thou makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet;

All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field,

The birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Jehovah, our Lord,

How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

Not unto us, O Jehovah, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy lovingkindness, and for thy truth's sake.

Wherefore should the nations say, where is now their God?

But our God is in the heavens; He hath done whatsoever he pleased.

Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

They have ears, but they hear not; noses have they, but they smell not;

They have hands, but they handle not; feet have they, but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat.

They that make them shall be like unto them; yea, every one that trusteth in them.

O Israel, trust thou in Jehovah: He is their help and their shield.

O house of Aaron, trust ye in Jehovah: He is their help and their shield.

Ye that fear Jehovah, trust in Jehovah:

He is their help and their shield.

SELECTION 2

A Summons to Praise Jehovah

Psalms 147:1-12, 19, 20

Praise ye Jehovah; for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

Jehovah doth build up Jerusalem; He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

He counteth the number of the stars; He calleth them all by their names.

Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His understanding is infinite.

Jehovah upholdeth the meek: He bringeth the wicked down to the ground.

Sing unto Jehovah with thanksgiving; sing praises upon the harp unto our God,

Who covereth the heavens with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: He taketh no pleasure in the legs of a man.

Jehovah taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his lovingkindness.

Praise Jehovah, O Jerusalem; Praise thy God, O Zion.

He showeth his word unto Jacob, His statutes and his ordinances unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation; and as for his ordinances, they have not known them. Praise ye Jehovah.

ever and ever: He hath made a decree which shall not pass away.

Praise Jehovah from the earth ye sea-monsters, and all deeps;

Fire and hail, snow and vapor; stormy wind, fulfilling his word;

Mountains and all hills; fruitful trees and all cedars;

Beasts and all cattle; creeping things and flying birds;

Kings of the earth and all peoples; princes and all judges of the earth;

Both young men and virgins; old men and children:

Let them praise the name of Jehovah; for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above the earth and the heavens.

And he hath lifted up the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye Jehovah.

SELECTION 3

A Call to Praise

Psalm 148

Praise ye Jehovah. Praise ye Jehovah from the heavens: Praise him in the heights.

Praise ye him, all his angels: Praise ye him, all his host.

Praise ye him, sun and moon: Praise him, all ye stars of light.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that are above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of Jehovah; for he commanded, and they were created.

He hath also established them for

SELECTION 4

A Psalm of Thanksgiving

Psalm 103

Bless Jehovah, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless Jehovah, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

Who satisfieth thy desire with good things, so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

Jehovah executeth righteous acts, and judgments for all that are oppressed.

He made known his ways unto Moses, his doings unto the children of Israel.

Jehovah is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness.

He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us after our iniquities.

For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his lovingkindness toward them that fear him.

As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children, so Jehovah pitieth them that fear him.

For he knoweth our frame; He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the lovingkindness of Jehovah is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his precepts to do them.

Jehovah hath established his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless Jehovah, ye his angels, that are mighty in strength, that fulfil his word, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless Jehovah, all ye his hosts, ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

Bless Jehovah, all ye his works, in all places of his dominion: Bless Jehovah, O my soul.

SELECTION 5

Longing for God's Courts

Psalm 42

As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me, how I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me?

Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

O my God, my soul is cast down within me; therefore do I remember thee from the land of the Jordan, and the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.

Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterfalls: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

Yet Jehovah will command his lovingkindness in the daytime; and in the night his song shall be with me, even a prayer unto the God of my life.

I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

As with a sword in my bones, mine adversaries reproach me, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me?

Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

The Joys of Divine Worship

Psalm 84

How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Jehovah of hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of Jehovah; my heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Jehovah of hosts, my King, and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Passing through the valley of weeping they make it a place of springs; yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

They go from strength to strength; every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

O Jehovah God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For Jehovah God is a sun and a shield: Jehovah will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

O Jehovah of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

"Wisdom Is the Principal Thing"

Proverbs 4:1-19

Hear, my sons, the instruction of a father,

And attend to know understanding:

For I give you good doctrine;

Forsake ye not my law.

For I was a son unto my father,

Tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

And he taught me, and said unto me:

Let thy heart retain my words;

Keep my commandments and live;

Get wisdom, get understanding;

Forget not, neither decline from the words of my mouth;

RESPONSIVE READINGS

Forsake her not, and she will preserve thee;

Love her, and she will keep thee.

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom;

Yea, with all thy getting get understanding.

Exalt her, and she will promote thee;

She will bring thee to honor, when thou dost embrace her.

She will give to thy head a chaplet of grace;

A crown of beauty will she deliver to thee.

Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings;

And the years of thy life shall be many.

I have taught thee in the way of wisdom;

I have led thee in paths of uprightness.

When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened;

And if thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go:

Keep her; for she is thy life.

Enter not into the path of the wicked,

And walk not in the way of evil men.

Avoid it, pass not by it;

Turn from it, and pass on.

For they sleep not, except they do evil;

And their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

For they eat the bread of wickedness,

And drink the wine of violence.

But the path of the righteous is as the dawning light,

That shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

The way of the wicked is as darkness:

They know not at what they stumble.

SELECTION 8

Wisdom's Invitation

Proverbs 8:1-11

Doth not wisdom cry, and understanding put forth her voice? On the top of high places by the way, where the paths meet, she standeth;

Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,

At the coming in at the doors, she crieth aloud:

Unto you, O men, I call;

And my voice is to the sons of men.

O ye simple, understand prudence;

And, ye fools, be of an understanding heart.

Hear, for I will speak excellent things;

And the opening of my lips shall be right things.

For my mouth shall utter truth;

And wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

All the words of my mouth are in righteousness;

There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.

They are all plain to him that understandeth,

And right to them that find knowledge.

Receive my instruction, and not silver;

And knowledge rather than choice gold.

For wisdom is better than rubies;

And all the things that may be desired are not to be compared unto it.

SELECTION 9

Nature and Scripture

Psalms 19

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language; their voice is not heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun.

Which is a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.

His going forth is from the end of the heavens, and his circuit unto the ends of it; and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the soul: the testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of Jehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring for ever: the ordinances of Jehovah are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned: in keeping them there is great reward.

Who can discern his errors? Clear thou me from hidden faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be clear from great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

SELECTION 10

The Law of God and Its Summary

Exodus 20:1-17; Matthew 22:35-40

I am Jehovah thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them;

For I Jehovah thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate me,

And showing lovingkindness unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of Jehovah thy God in vain;

For Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work;

But the seventh day is a sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

For in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested on the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

This is the great and first commandment.

And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

On these two commandments the whole law hangeth, and the prophets.

SELECTION 11

God's Holiness and Man's Depravity

Isaiah 6:1-7; Psalm 53

In the year that king Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple.

Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is Jehovah of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

Then said I, woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of hosts.

Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

And he touched my mouth with it, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin forgiven.

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity; There is none that doeth good.

God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek after God.

Every one of them is gone back; they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon God?

There were they in great fear, where no fear was; for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath rejected them.

Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

SELECTION 12

Social Injustice and God's Wrath

Amos 5:10-12, 21-24; Isaiah 1:16-20

They hate him that reproveth in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

Forasmuch therefore as ye trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat:

Ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink the wine thereof.

For I know how manifold are your transgressions, and how mighty are your sins—

Ye that afflict the just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the needy in the gate from their right.

I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies.

Yea, though you offer me your burnt-offerings and meal-offerings, I will not accept them;

Neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

But let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

Wash you, make you clean;

Put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes;

Cease to do evil;

Learn to do well;

Seek justice,

Relieve the oppressed,

Judge the fatherless,

Plead for the widow.

Come now, and let us reason together, saith Jehovah:

Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow;

though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it.

SELECTION 13

Divine Chastisement

Job 33:13-30

Why dost thou strive against him, for that he giveth not account of any of his matters?

For God speaketh once, yea twice, though man regardeth it not.

In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed.

Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction.

That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man;

He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and with continual strife in his bones;

So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty food.

His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

Yea, his soul draweth near unto the pit, and his life to the destroyers.

If there be with him an angel, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show unto man what is right for him;

Then God is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom.

His flesh shall be fresher than a child's; he returneth to the days of his youth.

He prayeth unto God, and he is favorable unto him, so that he seeth his face with joy: and he restoreth unto man his righteousness.

He singeth before men, and saith,
I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not:

He hath redeemed my soul from going into the pit, and my life shall behold the light.

Lo, all these things doth God work, twice, yea thrice, with a man.

To bring back his soul from the pit, that he may be enlightened with the light of the living.

SELECTION 14

Advent Prophecies

Genesis 3:15; 49:10; Isaiah 7:14; 9:2, 6-7;
Micah 5:2; Malachi 3:1-3

I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed:

He shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

The sceptre shall not depart from Judah; nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until Shiloh come;

And unto him shall the obedience of the peoples be.

Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign:

Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light:

They that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of Jehovah of hosts will perform this.

But thou, Beth-lehem Ephrathah, which art little to be among the thousands of Judah,

Out of thee shall one come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting.

Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom ye desire, behold, he cometh, saith Jehovah of hosts.

But who can abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

And he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver;

And they shall offer unto Jehovah offerings of righteousness,

SELECTION 15

The Birth of the Savior

Luke 2:1-14

Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be enrolled.

This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city.

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David;

To enroll himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child.

And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered.

And she brought forth her first-born son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.

And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people:

For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord.

And this is the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased.

SELECTION 16

The Wise Men From the East

Matthew 2:1-12

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, Wisemen from the east came to Jerusalem saying,

Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born.

And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written through the prophet,

And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, art in no wise least among the princes of Judah: for out of thee shall come forth a governor, who shall be shepherd of my people Israel.

Then Herod privily called the Wise-men, and learned of them exactly what time the star appeared.

And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out exactly concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him.

And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh.

And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

SELECTION 17

The Child Jesus

Luke 2:40-52

And the child grew, and waxed strong, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

And his parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the passover.

And when he was twelve years old, they went up after the custom of the feast;

And when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not;

But supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance:

And when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking for him.

And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions:

And all that heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

And when they saw him, they were astonished; and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? Behold, thy father and I sought thee sorrowing.

And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? Knew ye not that I must be in my Father's house?

And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

And Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

SELECTION 18

The Disciples' First Lesson on the Cross

Matthew 16:13-25

Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say that the Son of man is?

And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.

He saith unto them, But who say ye that I am?

And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah; for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven.

And I also say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it.

I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Then charged he the disciples that they should tell no man that he was the Christ.

From that time began Jesus to show unto his disciples, that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be unto thee.

But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan; thou art a stumbling-block unto me: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men.

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

For whosoever would save his life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake shall find it.

SELECTION 19

The Passion Foretold

Isaiah 53

Who hath believed our message?
and to whom hath the arm of Jehovah been revealed?

For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

He was despised, and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and as one from whom men hide their face he was despised; and we esteemed him not.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and Jehovah hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he opened not his mouth; as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth.

By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living for the transgression of my people to whom the stroke was due?

And they made his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death; although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Yet it pleased Jehovah to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of Jehovah shall prosper in his hand.

He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied:

By the knowledge of himself shall my righteous servant justify many;
and he shall bear their iniquities.

Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors:

Yet, he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the trans-gressors.

SELECTION 20

The Garden of Gethsemane

Luke 22:39-53

And he came out, and went, as his custom was, unto the mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed him.

And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

And he was parted from them about a stone's cast; and he kneeled down and prayed,

Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done,

And there appeared unto him an angel from heaven, strengthening him.

And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became as it were great drops of blood falling down upon the ground.

And when he rose up from his prayer, he came unto his disciples, and found them sleeping for sorrow,

And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

While he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

And when they that were about him saw what would follow, they said, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

And a certain one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and struck off his right ear.

But Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye them thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

And Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and elders, that were come against him, Are ye come out as against a robber, with swords and staves?

When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your hands against me; but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

SELECTION 21

The Cross of Golgotha

John 19:17-25, 28-30

They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha:

Where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

This title therefore read many of the Jews, for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city; and it was written in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek.

The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am King of the Jews.

Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

These things therefore the soldiers did.

After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst.

There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth.

When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

SELECTION 22

Jesus' Resurrection

Matthew 28:1-15

Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.

His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

And for fear of him the watchers did quake and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified.

He is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word.

And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his feet, and worshipped him.

Then saith Jesus unto them, Fear not: go tell my brethren that they depart into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass.

And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave much money unto the soldiers, Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care.

So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was spread among the Jews, and continueth until this day.

SELECTION 23

Jesus' Ascension

Acts 1:1-12

The former treatise I made, O Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus began both to do and to teach,

Until the day in which he was received up, after that he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

To whom he also showed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God:

And, being assembled together with them, he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, said he, ye heard from me:

For John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days hence.

They therefore, when they were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, dost thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?

And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which the Father hath set within his own authority.

But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

And while they were looking steadfastly into heaven as he went, behold two men stood by them in white apparel;

Who also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, who was received up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey off.

SELECTION 24

The Outpouring of the Holy Spirit

Acts 2:1-17

And when the day of Pentecost was now come, they were all together in one place.

And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

And there appeared unto them tongues parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven.

And when this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speaking in his own language.

And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying, Behold, are not all these that speak Galilaeans?

And how hear we, every man in our own language, wherein we were born?

Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judaea and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia,

In Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,

Cretans and Arabians, we hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works of God.

And they were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

But others mocking said, They are filled with new wine.

But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spake forth unto them, saying,

Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and give ear unto my words.

For these are not drunken, as ye suppose; seeing it is but the third hour of the day;

But this is that which hath been spoken through the prophet Joel:

And it shall be in the last days, saith God, I will pour forth of my Spirit upon all flesh.

Justification By Faith, Not By Works

Romans 3:21-28; 4:1-8

But now apart from the law a righteousness of God hath been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

Even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ unto all them that believe; for there is no distinction;

For all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God;

Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

Whom God set forth to be a propitiation, through faith, in his blood, to show his righteousness because of the passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the forbearance of God;

For the showing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him that hath faith in Jesus.

Where then is the glorying? It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith.

We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law.

What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, hath found according to the flesh?

For if Abraham was justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not toward God.

For what saith the scripture? And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness.

Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not reckon sin.

The Fruits of Justification

Romans 8:12-18, 26-30

So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh:

For if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the Spirit ye put to death the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.

For ye received not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God:

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward.

And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered;

And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is in the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

And we know that to them that love God all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his purpose.

For whom he foreknew, he also foreordained to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren:

And whom he foreordained, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

A Faithful Ministry

For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burneth.

And the nations shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory; and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of Jehovah shall name.

Thou shalt also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Jehovah, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that are Jehovah's remembrancers take ye no rest,

And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

And I, brethren, when I came unto you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God.

For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

RESPONSIVE READINGS

And my speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

What then is Apollos? and what is Paul? Ministers through whom ye believed; and each as the Lord gave to him.

I planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.

For we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's husbandry, God's building.

Isaiah 55

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples.

Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not; and a nation that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of Jehovah thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

Seek ye Jehovah while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near:

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto Jehovah, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith Jehovah.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree; and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree:

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she hath received of Jehovah's hand double for all her sins.

The voice of one that crieth, Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of Jehovah; make level in the desert a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain:

And the glory of Jehovah shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it.

The voice of one saying, Cry. And one said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, because the breath of Jehovah bloweth upon it; surely the people is grass.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand forever.

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up on a high mountain; O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold, your God!

Behold, the Lord Jehovah will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him: Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and will gently lead those that have their young.

But now in Christ Jesus ye that once were far off are made nigh in the blood of Christ.

Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; that he might create in himself of the two one new man, so making peace;

And might reconcile them both in one body unto God through the cross, having slain the enmity thereby;

And he came and preached peace to you that were far off, and peace to them that were nigh:

For through him we both have our access in one Spirit unto the Father.

And so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:

But ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable hosts of angels,

But he said unto him, A certain man made a great supper; and he bade many:

And he sent forth his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

And the servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame.

And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thy house, and upon thy gates.

Give ear, O my people, to my law: Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old,

Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of Jehovah, and his strength, and his wondrous works that he hath done.

For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children;

That the generation to come might know them, even the children that should be born; who should arise and tell them to their children.

That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God.

Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men.

Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid.

Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house.

Even so let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

Seeking the Kingdom of God

Matthew 6:24-34

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment?

Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they?

And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life?

And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

Yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

The True Way

Matthew 7:7-23

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone;

Or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent?

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many are they that enter in thereby.

For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves.

By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out demons, and by thy name do many mighty works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you; depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit.

Already ye are clean because of the word which I have spoken unto you, Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide in me.

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing.

If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples.

Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in my love.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full.

This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you.

And before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats;

And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

For I was hungry, and ye gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in;

Naked, and ye clothed me; I was sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink?

And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me.

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels:

For I was hungry, and ye did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink;

I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

Then shall they also answer, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me.

Paul's Hymn on Christian Love

I Corinthians 13

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not provoked, taketh not account of evil;

Rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth;

Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away.

For we know in part, and we prophesy in part;

But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away.

When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child; now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things.

For now we see in a mirror, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know fully even as also I was fully known.

But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

Proving the Spirits

I John 4:1-16, 19-21

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

And every spirit that confesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the spirit of the anti-christ, whereof ye have heard that it cometh; and now it is in the world already.

Ye are of God, my little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world.

They are of the world: therefore speak they as of the world, and the world heareth them.

We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he who is not of God heareth us not. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God, and knoweth God.

He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

Herein was the love of God manifested in us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world that we might live through him.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins, Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

No man hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his love is perfected in us:

Hereby we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

And we have beheld and bear witness that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God.

And we know and have believed the love which God hath in us. God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him.

We love, because he first loved us.

If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, cannot love God whom he hath not seen.

And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.

For he will give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under foot.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, and honor him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Faith Triumphant

Hebrews 11:1-10; 24-26

Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, a conviction of things not seen.

For therein the elders had witness borne to them.

By faith we understand that the worlds have been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen hath not been made out of things which appear.

By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, God bearing witness in respect of his gifts: and through it he being dead yet speaketh.

By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: for he hath had witness borne to him that before his translation he had been well-pleasing unto God:

And without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him.

By faith Noah, being warned of God concerning things not seen as yet, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

By faith he became a sojourner in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

For he looked for the city which hath the foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

Choosing rather to share ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

Accounting the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt:

For he looked unto the recompense of reward.

SELECTION 45

Preservation of the Believers

I Peter 1:3-10; 23-25

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

Unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

Who by the power of God are guarded through faith unto a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, ye have been put to grief in manifold trials,

That the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold that perisheth though it is proved by fire, may be found unto praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ:

Whom not having seen ye love; on whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

Receiving the end of your faith,
even the salvation of your souls.

Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should should come unto you:

Having been begotten again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which liveth and abideth.

For, All flesh is as grass, and all the glory thereof as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower falleth:

But the word of the Lord abideth for ever.

And this is the word of good tidings which was preached unto you.

SELECTION 46

God's Eternity and Man's Frailty

Psalms 90

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man to destruction, and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: In the morning they are like the grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

For we are consumed in thine anger, and in thy wrath are we troubled.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we bring our years to an end as a sigh.

The days of our years are three-score years and ten, or even by reason of strength fourscore years: yet is their pride but labor and sorrow;
for it is soon gone, and we fly away.

Who knoweth the power of thine anger, and thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee?

So teach us to number our days, that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Return, O Jehovah; how long?
And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

Oh satisfy us in the morning with thy lovingkindness, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou has afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory upon their children.

And let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish thou the work of our hands upon us;

Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

SELECTION 47

The Vanity of Earthly Life

Ecclesiastes 11:9, 10; 12:1-8; 13-14

Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thine eyes; but know thou that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

Remember also thy Creator in the days of thy youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

Before the sun, and the light, and the moon, and the stars, are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain;

In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows shall be darkened,

And the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

Yea, they shall be afraid of that which is high, and terrors shall be in the way; and the almond-tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goeth to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets;

Before the silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern,

And the dust returneth to the earth as it was, and the spirit returneth unto God who gave it.

Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard: Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.

For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

SELECTION 48

The Believer's Triumph Over Death

Psalm 23; John 11:21-27

Jehovah is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of Jehovah for ever.

Martha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

And even now I know that whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God will give thee.

Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live;

And whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die. Believest thou this?

She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, even he that cometh into the world.

SELECTION 49

Signs of His Coming

Matthew 24:1-14

And Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way; and his disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple.

But he answered and said unto them. See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

And as he sat on the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray.

For many shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and shall lead many astray.

And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that ye be not troubled: for these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet.

For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be famines and earthquakes in divers places.

But all these things are the beginning of travail.

Then shall they deliver you up unto tribulation, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all the nations for my name's sake.

And then shall many stumble, and shall deliver up one another, and shall hate one another.

And many false prophets shall arise, and shall lead many astray.

And because iniquity shall be multiplied, the love of many shall wax cold.

But he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a testimony unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.

SELECTION 50

Signs of His Coming

Matthew 24:23-31; 36-44

Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or, Here; believe it not.

For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Behold, I have told you beforehand.

If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe it not.

For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west; so shall be the coming of the Son of man.

Wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

And he shall send forth his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds.

But of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, neither the Son, but the Father only.

And as were the days of Noah, so shall be the coming of the Son of man.

For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark.

And they knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall be the coming of the Son of man.

Then shall two men be in the field; one is taken, and one is left:

Two women shall be grinding at the mill; one is taken, and one is left.

Watch therefore: for ye know not on what day your Lord cometh.

But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken through.

Therefore be ye also ready; for in an hour that ye think not the Son of man cometh.

SELECTION 51

Signs of His Coming

I Thess. 4:13-17; II Thess. 2:1-12

But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as the rest, who have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive, that are left unto the coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede them that are fallen asleep.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first;

Then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Now we beseech you, brethren, touching the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together unto him;

To the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by epistle as from us, as that the day of the Lord is just at hand;

Let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the falling away come first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition,

He that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God.

Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

And now ye know that which restraineth, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season.

For the mystery of lawlessness doth already work: only there is one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of the way.

And then shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord Jesus shall slay with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nought by the manifestation of his coming;

Even he, whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

And will all deceit of unrighteousness for them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

And for this cause God sendeth them a working of error, that they should believe a lie:

That they all might be judged who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

"Behold, I Come Quickly"

Revelation 22:1-7; 16-21

And he showed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, in the midst of the street thereof.

And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month:

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

And there shall be no curse any more: and the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein: and his servants shall serve him;

And they shall see his face; and his name shall be on their foreheads.

And there shall be night no more; and they need no light of lamp, neither light of sun;

For the Lord God shall give them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

And he said unto me, These words are faithful and true:

And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly come to pass.

And behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book.

I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things for the churches.

I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright, the morning star.

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And he that heareth, let him say, Come.

And he that is athirst, let him come: he that will, let him take the water of life freely.

I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto them, God shall add unto him the plagues which are written in this book:

And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book.

He who testifieth these things saith, Yea: I come quickly. Amen: come, Lord Jesus.

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with the saints. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father, Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, our Lord:

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary:

Suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell:

The third day he rose again from the dead:

He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty:

From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead:

I believe in the Holy Ghost:

I believe a holy catholic church: the communion of saints:

The forgiveness of sins:

The resurrection of the body:

And the life everlasting. AMEN.
